

The Colonel Gray Family of Schools

-Chantal Smith and Chad White delivered presentations on empathy and bullying to grade 4 and 5 elementary students within the Colonel Gray Family of Schools

-Keri Thompson and Chad White delivered presentations on responding to authority to grade 5 students within the Colonel Gray Family of Schools. Upcoming presentations to this group include respect, conflict resolution, empathy, kindness, and bullying

-Linda Mahood and Vanessa Simmons will be presenting to junior high students and their parents on topics such as screen time, time management, and healthy lifestyle on February 6th

-Linda Mahood has delivered several Triple P Discussion Groups (0-12 and Teen) to parents of students within the Colonel Gray family of Schools. These sessions have been well received. Additional sessions are booked and will be delivered to groups of parents by Linda and two other staff trained in Triple P Discussions, Mary Jane Neitz and Chantal Smith in the coming weeks

-Groups focusing on coping skills will be beginning in the next few weeks at both junior and senior high schools within the Colonel Gray Family of Schools

-Living Life to The Full! will be delivered to junior high students within the Colonel Gray Family of Schools in the coming weeks